Santa Monica City Charter Article XXII—Information for Contributors

Under Article XXII of our City Charter, Councilmembers may not accept contributions from anyone who has received a valuable benefit* as a result of the Councilmember's affirmative vote.

I affirm that I have not received a benefit as described by Article XXII, nor am I a 10% owner, or a partner, director, officer, or trustee, of a corporation or other entity that received such a benefit.

*Valuable benefits are defined as follows:

- A variance or special use permit operating as an exception to the zoning code and worth more than $25,000.
- A contract for services or goods worth more than $25,000 in any twelve-month period.
- A real estate contract worth more than $25,000 in any twelve-month period.
- A franchise with gross revenue over $50,000 in any twelve-month period.
- A tax abatement worth more than $5,000 in any twelve-month period.
- Cash in excess of $10,000 in any twelve-month period.

Beneficiaries are defined to include both persons who have received benefits, and persons who are 10% owners, or are partners, directors, officers, or trustees, of corporations or other entities that have received benefits.

Thank you!
