Santa Monica City Charter Article XXII: Information for Contributors

Under Article XXII of our City Charter, Council members may not accept contributions from anyone who has received a valuable benefit as a result of the Council member's affirmative vote.

I affirm that I have not received a benefit as defined by Article XXII, nor am I a 10% owner, partner, director, officer, or trustee of a corporation or other entity which received such a benefit.

Valuable benefits are defined as follows:

- * A variance or special use permit operating as an exception to the zoning code and worth more than $25,000.
- * A contract for services or goods worth more than $25,000 in any twelve-month period.
- * A real estate contract worth more than $25,000 in any twelve-month period.
- * A franchise with gross revenue over $50,000 in any twelve-month period.
- * A tax abatement with more than $5,000 in any twelve-month period.
- * Cash in excess of $10,000 in any twelve-month period.

Beneficiaries are defined to include both persons who have received benefits and persons who are 10% owners, partners, directors, officers, or trustees of corporations or other entities which have received benefits.
